

PROSPECTUS OF THE HORNET.

"TOUCH—AND WE STING."

THE undersigned proposes publishing a weekly journal under the above title, commencing the first number on the 11th day of July, and continuing it until the November election. Prompted by no other motives than the welfare and prosperity of our beloved State, we enter the field with buoyant spirits, and shall use all honorable means to rescue her once fair name from the iron grasp of Repudiation. A well conducted Press, being the great lever by which public opinion may be directed to the right path of moral justice and good faith, it behoves the friends of this righteous cause, to come boldly to the rescue, and give that assistance which will be exaluated to crown the enterprise with brilliant success.

Perhaps no one period has existed since the formation of our Government, fraught with so many dangerous, ill-devised and revolutionary measures, and calling louder for the aid and assistance of the true sons of liberty.—Was such a monster as HEREMETRUS ever heard of, until it was promulgated in this State by a faction of political aspirants, who styled themselves "democrats" for the purpose of deluding the honest of that party, and leading them to the polls to ensure the success of their unholy cause.

Shall the foul stain of dishonor still blacken our flag of State—or shall we, like true patriots, rush to the threshold, wipe out the stain, and bear it aloft in glorious triumph from the ranks of our enemies. We are fighting in a good cause, and let us, like the revolutionary patriots, invoke the blessings of a divine Providence in our behalf.

In the language of some distinguished and able writer, "the patriot may wonder at, and lament the ruin and misrule now being performed under the influence of the unmeaning, ever-varying and baseless thing called anti-bond democracy, as it now rolls in majestic billows, wherever its cry of exclusive devotion to the rights of man—to the inviolate preservation of Constitutions—as well as the honor of States, can gain it a reception. As understood and practiced by the ruling party in Mississippi, what is called democracy, signifies, one day, to charter and build up banks, the next day, to borrow from them the largest possible amount, and the next day to refuse payment, depreciate the paper, and to abuse and repudiate the institutions, in every possible way, with a loud cry for a gold and silver currency."

Such abhorrent and detestable doctrines will meet a fatal doom at the next election, if the true spirit is manifested by the bond-paying party of Mississippi. We appeal to the true Democratic party, who claim to be disciples of Jefferson, and implore them to put their shoulders to the wheel and assist us in pulling the wheels of State out of the mire—and we are assured, from the tone of the Democratic bond-paying meetings which have been held in different parts of the State, that our exhortations are not made in vain.

Aside from the bond-question, our sheet will contain Foreign, Political, Miscellaneous, Poetry—Agricultural, N. Orleans Prices Current, Legislative Proceedings of the Extra Session, with all other news of import.

In order to put this publication within the reach of every body, we propose to furnish it to subscribers until the November election, at the reduced price of ONE DOLLAR, in advance. All who are in favor of the paper, and wish it success, will please act as our agents and procure subscribers. A little activity on the part of our friends, would do great good towards us in a pecuniary point of view, and would more fully enable us to print a spirited sheet. We expect this much from them, and have no doubt but that our anticipations will be fully realized.

We have the promise of contributions from several of our worthy co-laborers in the cause, and in fact would be pleased to receive communications from all sources, and upon any subject that would be of interest to our readers.

We would respectfully request the citizens of Carrollton to take each Prospectus, and make an effort to increase our list.
